

Recruitment of Ex-Offenders Policy

Part of tes

As an organisation assessing applicants' suitability for positions which are included in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order using criminal record checks processed through the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS), Vision for Education, ABC Teachers and Smart Teachers comply fully with the Government's 'DBS Code of Practice' and undertakes to treat all applicants for positions fairly.

We undertake not to discriminate unfairly against any subject of a criminal record check on the basis of a conviction or other information revealed.

We can only ask an individual to provide details of convictions and cautions that we are legally entitled to know about. Where a DBS certificate at either standard or enhanced level can legally be requested (where the position is one that is included in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 as amended, and where appropriate Police Act Regulations as amended).

We can only ask an individual about convictions and cautions that are not protected.

We are committed to the fair treatment of our staff, potential staff or users of our services, regardless of race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, responsibilities for dependants, age, physical and mental disability or offending background.

Our Recruitment of Ex-Offenders Policy is made available to all applicants at the start of the recruitment process.

We actively promote equality of opportunity for all with the right mix of talent, skills and potential and welcome applications from a wide range of candidates, including those with criminal records.

We select all candidates for interview based on their skills, qualifications and experience.

All applicants require a criminal records check. Our job adverts include a statement that an application for a DBS certificate will need to be submitted as part of the registration process.

We ensure that all staff who are involved in the recruitment process have been suitably trained to identify and assess the relevance and circumstances of offences. We also ensure that they have received appropriate guidance and training in the relevant legislation relating to the employment of ex-offenders, eg the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

At interview, or in a separate discussion, we ensure that an open and measured discussion takes place on the subject of any offences or other matter that might be relevant to the position. Failure to reveal information that is directly relevant to the position sought could lead to withdrawal of an offer of employment.

We make sure every applicant is aware of the existence of the Government's 'DBS Code of Practice' and make a copy available on request.

We undertake to discuss any matter revealed on a DBS certificate with the individual seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 does not apply to positions which involve working with or having access to children or vulnerable adults. The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (Exceptions) Order 1975 (the Exceptions Order), which lists these positions as exceptions to the 1974 Act, recognises that due to the nature of these roles, fuller disclosure of a person's criminal record history is relevant. On 29 May 2013, amendments were made to the Exceptions Order so that certain old and minor cautions and spent convictions are filtered and not subject to disclosure under the Exceptions Order. They will also not appear on a standard or enhanced disclosure certificate issued by the DBS as protected cautions and convictions are filtered from DBS disclosure.

Candidates are expected to declare all unprotected spent cautions and convictions when applying for any of our positions. Failure to disclose any unprotected cautions and convictions, even if spent, may result in the termination of the candidate's application.

Dealing with convictions

Vision for Education, ABC Teachers and Smart Teachers operate a risk assessment review if a DBS Certificate is returned with details of convictions. Applicants will need to complete a 'DBS Check Risk Assessment Form (Part 1)' and a Safeguarding Team Leader will complete a 'DBS Check Risk Assessment Form (Part 2)' – see Appendix 1.

Consideration will be given to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and:

- the nature, seriousness and relevance of the offence
- how long ago the offence occurred
- if it was a one-off or history of offences
- changes in circumstances, and
- decriminalisation and remorse.

If a candidate has a positive DBS, then the candidate will be asked to provide some background information surrounding the circumstances leading to their caution or conviction, and we would make a recruitment decision following a compliance review based on the criteria above. Booking clients will be informed if an agency worker has a positive DBS and the consultant within branch will provide a copy of the DBS (with the candidate's consent) to the client before any booking takes place.

DBS Check Risk Assessment Form (Part 1)

PART 1 – FOR THE APPLICANT TO COMPLETE

Your Rehabilitation of Offenders Form/DBS certificate has identified information which may be relevant to your employment. This will not necessarily prevent you from working for us - it will depend on the nature of the position that you are applying for and your circumstances at the time of the incidents or offences. We would therefore like to give you the opportunity to provide an explanation for these incidents or offences, as well as the circumstances around you at the time. We need to know who was involved, when it occurred, what occurred, where the incident or offence was committed and why it was committed.

Please complete the following questions. Please be aware that if you withhold information or give false information, it will be regarded as an attempt to falsify records which constitutes gross misconduct and will, if proved, result in you being dismissed from your role/removed from our supply register.
